MEMORANDUM FOR: Colonel White

25X1A

At the last DD/S Staff Meeting, you referred to Regulation [REDACTED] and indicated that each Deputy is required to nominate annually, no fewer than five candidates. Under the provision of paragraph 4b(1)(c), I, as a head of a Career Service, have formally nominated five candidates, all of whom were disqualified, and nominated informally, three additional, who because of the results of their preliminary interviews, will not be accepted, were not formally nominated. This exhausts my resources unless I force people into it who do not desire to participate in the program. It appears to me from the Regulation, that under the provisions of paragraph 4b(2), each Deputy must nominate no fewer than five candidates from among the personnel under his career service jurisdiction, over and above the personnel nominated by the heads of his various divisions and staffs, and who are under the cognizance of another career board, such as mine.
